THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 3, 1866.

CHOLERA. - In the opinion of Dr. Snow, the health officer at Providence, there is an atmospheric cause of cholera, which is now on the Atlantic ocean moving toward us. Vessels coming from ports where there has been no cholera for many years have been stricken with the pestilence on passing through this atmospheric cause, and when that cause reaches our shores the cholera will spring up everywhere, where the social causes exist.

Dr. J. G. Webster delivered a lecture on Monday evening in New York, on the phenomena; causes, mode of propagation, and contagious character of cholera, The disease, he said, is seldom known to attack persons of good stock. constitution and correct habits. But there were predisposing causes of cholera, which ought not to be overlooked. An atmosphere loaded with animal effluvia was one of the ele-ments by which the disease was developed.— The atodes of the poor, crowded with the vicious, intemperate, and squalid, were strong holds of the pestilence. Besides, persons exhausted by an excessive amount of physical or mental labor; artisans and working girls who followed sedentary occupations, and the large class debilitated by the use of medicines. by continual or occasional sickness, by drinking tea, coffee, or liquor, were all predisposed to take cholera.

How the Money Goes. - The items of appropriation of the bill introduced by Mr. Stevens in the House on Monday, for the freedmen's Bureau for 1866, shows what an expensive elephant that animal is on the hands of Uncle Sam. The items are as follows: Salaries of assistants and sub-assistants, $147,500; clerks, $82,800; stationery and printing, $63,000; quarters and fuel, $15,900; clothing for distribution, $1,750,000; commissary stores, $4,106,250; medical department, $500,000; transportation, $1,980,000; school superintendents, $21,000; sign for school houses or than denis, $21,000; sites for school-houses, orphan asylums, &c., $3,000.000; sundries, $18,000; total, $11,684,450. - Wash.
